> Hi Cindy:
> As you know, I was traveling from NYC to SF yesterday and did not have > an opportunity to communicate with you or Scott via email or phone.
> As we discussed, my office spent yesterday redrafting the long and > short form of settlement notice, and proposed claim form. As I am > just back in the office this morning, I have not had an opportunity to > review those revisions. I will review them this morning and provide > copies of those documents to your team this morning, as we agreed.
> Also as we discussed, it is important that you transmit your > collective comments/revisions to us as quickly as possible, so that we > continue to work from a single document and finalize things at our > end.
> As discussed on Sunday, our team is very interested in including EFF > in an ongoing monitoring role. For the reasons we discussed at our > joint session, we do not think it is appropriate for EFF to be listed > in the settlement document itself. We are willing to modify the > settlement agreement to include the phrase "Plaintiffs' Class Counsel > and/or its designee," where appropriate, in order to accomplish our > joint desire to include EFF in future monitoring efforts. Also, as > discussed, we will enter into a separate agreement that empowers EFF > to perform future monitoring functions as our designee. This is not > really Sony's issue, but we understand from our joint session on > Sunday that Sony has no objection to this approach.
> Please forward any suggestions and/or drafts of a banner ad notice to > us as quickly as possible, if you have that in hand. As we discussed > yesterday, our team has not yet focused on this task.
> Finally, as discussed, we are willing to grant you an additional > extension of time to challenge the CMO. The prior stipulation that we > signed came to us from Robert's office. If he could transmit another > one, we can execute it and get it back to you as quickly as possible.

> Dear Elizabeth and Scott,

> I called Jeff Jacobsen this morning and he told me that the CMC had > been put over until Friday January 6 at 2:30pm. He said he thought > that you were going to tell me.

> I am also waiting for the draft notice and other documents that we > discussed yesterday. It looks like I will be flying home this > afternoon, so please be sure to send those documents to Corynne and > Robert Green in addition to me, so that we may promptly circulate them > to our team.

> I am hoping we can continue working in the cooperative spirit that > emerged on Sunday.

> Thanks,
>
